

MORE RESOURCES: THE BRAIN, COGNITIVE IMPAIRMENT, BEHAVIOR, DEMENTIA

Books, Journals, Articles and Websites:

Here is a list of some of the websites, books, journals, and articles that are easily accessible in the general press and media, in both the popular and professional press. You can find most of these and other articles/information on the internet or in the library. More websites and resources are listed at the end of some of the handouts and in information from the Michigan Mental Health and Aging Project (MHAP) (whose website is below). The resources listed here emphasize older adults, dementia, and disorders frequently misdiagnosed. Some are seminal and some are more recent.
